How do I change the marker spacing on a line chart? I am asking this because this chart looks really unnatural to me, if I had to guess, it's something to do with the spacing between the circles or squares (spaceship) but I can't seem to change it. A: Working Example If you set the width of the SVG, that will spread the content out, thus making sure the spacing between markers is much wider. .line { width: 200px; } From the looks of your snippet, you do not have a max-width set (you will need to put it so that the SVG stretches to cover the entire element).
