Relatively recently we watched a movie "Quantum of Solace" with the wife and the kids. As usual we watched the movie more than once. Later we noted down titles of the most remarkable scenes in the order of our viewing. We decided to make our movie collection far more enjoyable by putting together a jigsaw puzzle. We shared the game with some other family members. This is the second jigsaw puzzle edition of our book themed around the series of James Bond movies. The first one we did was the classic "Austin Powers" book (see my review here). The most intriguing movie of the new book is of course Goldeneye... This is the famous title sequence from the first Bond movie made in 1971. It is the second part of a two-part game. The first part was made for the children of our family, who enjoy all the Bond movies. All parts of the game are part of the same puzzle. Parts A and B are meant to enjoy on its own. We have approx. six pictures in total. In addition to the full size puzzle we have reduced the size to the actual size of the title sequence cut-out (smaller than an A4 paper) for you to enjoy on your mobile device. The nearest theme parks are ATEC (Ankara Turkey), Arapça (Ankara, Turkey), ACG (Taichung Taiwan), BCEC (Shizuoka, Japan) and the Alma-Ata World Expo 2013 stands nearby the Caspian Sea. For traveling to these locations you can take advantage of hydro-cable cars and organized bus tours. The railway travel time between these spots is less than an hour. Median age of the IQ Puzzle community is 23 years old. At the same time IQ Puzzles inspire families, they inspire people of all ages since all ages can appreciate a well-designed puzzle.
